VITAMIN

01

On July 3, there were market rumors that an accident occurred in the workshop of Zhenhua Shares. The factory urgently refuted the rumor, saying it was a false rumor.

Zhenhua Shares Statement:

- ① The company has not had any safety accidents recently;
- ② Continuous rainfall has not affected the company's normal production;
- ③ Equipment maintenance is a routine arrangement for chemical companies in summer.

It is understood that D3 Indian manufacturer Fermenta has stopped reporting and is out of stock; in addition, raw materials are in short supply and there is no cholesterol.

AMINO ACID

02

According to Henan Jin Yufeng, the supply of 70% lysine hydrochloride is limited and orders are limited. The number of orders signed in the lysine market has decreased recently. It is expected that the price of sulfate will remain stable and slightly weak in the short term.

API

03

Recently, Jinyao Pharmaceuticals announced that its chemical API famotidine has been approved for marketing. So far, Jinyao Pharmaceuticals has invested a total of about 5 million yuan in the famotidine API research and development project.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

It is understood that COFCO Technology plans to invest in the expansion of the 150,000 tons/year starch sugar project of COFCO Biochemical (Chengdu) Co., Ltd., with a total investment of 185 million yuan, in order to improve the industrial layout of starch sugar business. The project will specifically include a 480 tons/day fructose-glucose syrup production and processing line, starch receiving and pretreatment facilities, as well as the expansion and renovation of supporting facilities such as the feeding system, circulating water system, and sewage treatment system.
